Kipp & Zonen Award for Boundary Layer Meteorology

Introduction

Kipp & Zonen, manufacturer of meteorological instruments, is proud to announce its Award for Boundary Layer Research. It shall be awarded to an aspiring young scientist presenting an outstanding research paper on Boundary Layer Meteorology at a conference. The Award was launched in the year 2005, when Kipp & Zonen celebrated its 175th anniversary and first awarded at the 5th Annual Meeting of the European Meteorological Society, jointly held with the European Conference on Applications of Meteorology (ECAM) in Utrecht, 12-16 September 2005. In 2007, the Award will be given at the 7th Annual Meeting of the EMS which will again be held together with the European Conference on Applications of Meteorology in San Lorenzo de El Escorial, Spain, 1-5 October 2007.

Scope - Eligibility

The award consists of a prize money of 1000 Euro and expenses for travel and accommodation. Proposing candidates can be done in three ways: (i) candidates may propose themselves; (ii) they can be proposed by the scientific committee of the conference; (iii) they can be proposed by conveners of sessions at the conference.
