

EMS/ECAC 2010 - How to get to the Banquet

The Banquet in connection with EMS/ECAC 2010 will take place in the restaurant Giesserei. The address is Birchstrasse 108
8050 Zürich-Oerlikon
telephone +41 (0)43 205 10 10

The Apero will start at 19:00 h, the dinner at 19:30 h.

The easiest way to get there is by tram no. 11 (for details about getting tickets, see below).

From ETH Center it is best to go to the tram stop "Bahnhofquai" between the main station and the Limmat river. You can either walk, take a tram, or ride the cable car. There you board a tram no. 11 in direction "Auzelg". In the evening, trams run every 7 to 8 minutes; after 13 minutes you arrive at the tram stop "Regensbergbrücke"; here you get off. Cross the bridge over the train tracks and take the first left. After about 100 meters you will have an old foundry to your left - and that's the place!

Getting around in Zurich

Zurich offers a very dense public transportation system! And they make it easy for you to get a ticket: Go to one of the blue ticket machines. As long as you do not want to go outside the city limits, don't bother about the name of the stop or the name of the street, just push the blue button to get a ticket which is valid for one hour (costing CHF 4.00) or the green button to get a ticket which is valid for 24 hours (costing CHF 8.00). You do not need to validate the ticket, it is valid for any direction on any means of transportation within the city limits, i.e., tram, bus, boat, train, or cable car. At ticketshops located in train stations, on squares, etc. you can get multiple tickets with a discount.

There are also newer ticket machines with touch screens; they guide you to your ticket step-by-step.

In your conference documentation you find a map with tram and bus lines.

Be sure to have a correct ticket when boarding any means of transportation. There are frequent checks, and Zurich is famous for its costly zero-tolerance with people not having a valid ticket!
