

Open Access: a southern European perspective

In our talk we will present and discuss the initiatives, current situation and future perspectives of Open Access on the southern European countries. We will focus on the experience of the RCAAP project in Portugal, and also on the results of the Seminar for Open Access to Science Information: Policies for the development of OA in Southern Europe, held in Granada in May 2010.