

Carl-Christian Buhr - CV

Member of the Cabinet of Ms Neelie Kroes, Vice-President for Digital Agenda, European Commission, Digital Agenda

Carl-Christian Buhr was born in Hamburg, Germany, in 1976. Mr Buhr holds a doctorate and degrees in economics and computer science. Mr Buhr started working for the European Union in 2005, at the European Court of Auditors in Luxemburg. After that he has spent three years in the European Commission's Directorate-General for Competition, dealing with antitrust and merger cases and investigations concerning the IT sector. In March 2010 Carl-Christian Buhr joined the cabinet of European Commission Vice-President Neelie Kroes who is responsible for the Digital Agenda for Europe. He advises Commissioner Kroes on research and innovation policy and research infrastructures, including on policies concerning the dissemination of and access to scientific information.