

Curriculum Vitae

Engelen, Joseph Johannus

Date of birth: 6 July 1950

Married to Marlein Hendrickx; we have three sons: Marc, Roel and Benne Engelen

Physics study at Nijmegen University (presently Radboud University) starting September 1967, Doctoral Exam February 1973.

Research Appointment (20% for teaching) at Nijmegen University; Ph.D. February 1979 (Nijmegen University).

March 1979 –February 1985: CERN (the European Laboratory for Particle Physics - Geneva, Switzerland), Fellow and Staff Member.

March 1985 – present: Staff Physicist at NIKHEF, since 1987 Full Professor of Physics at the University of Amsterdam (on leave of absence since January 2004).

1 July 2001 – 31 December 2003: Director of NIKHEF, National Institute for High Energy and Nuclear Physics (Amsterdam, The Netherlands).

1 January 2004 – now: Chief Scientific Officer (Scientific Director) and Deputy Director-General of CERN, the European Laboratory for Particle Physics. CERN is a European Intergovernmental Research Organization (20 European Members States plus ‘Observer States’ a.o. India, Israel, Japan, Russia, USA) – the annual budget is approximately 1 Billion CHF.