

An Influence of the Geomagnetic Disturbances to the Long Lasting Whistler Activity

A.Kovac

Geomagnetic Institute, Beograd, SCG (Yugoslavia), ana04ko@yahoo.com / Fax: +381 11 3618659 / Phone: +381 11 3618659

The many hours whistler activity duration is consequence of the particular state of the magnetosphere, when there are conditions which make the long lasting whistler propagation possible. The goal of the investigation is the geomagnetic disturbances influence to this kind of magnetosphere conditions. The whistler activity records and the geomagnetic phenomena changes data were used for that purpose.