

The new absolute gravity stations in Bulgaria and integration of the basic gravity network of the country to their system

(1) G. Milev, (2) G. Valev and K. Vassileva

(1)Institute of Water Problems, (2) Bulgarian Academy of Sciences (milev@bas.bg)

The network of new absolute gravity stations on the territory of Bulgaria has been presented. Information about its establishment, results obtained and aspects of its use within the country and integration within the European space, especially within the United European Gravity Network 2002 (UEGN02) has been given. Results from the new data processing of the Basic gravity network of Bulgaria in the system of the absolute gravity stations have been shown. Respective conclusions and suggestions have been presented.