

Chandrayaan-1: India's Mission to the Moon, goals, status, and European

C. Erd (*), O. Witasse, M. Grande, B. Maddison, S. Barabash, H. Andersson, U. Mall, A. Nathues

(* ) ESA/ESTEC SCI-A (Christian.Erd@esa.int)

An overview will be given on the Indian lunar mission Chandrayaan-1, which is scheduled for launch in March 2008. The mission profile, payload, and scientific summary will be presented. Three ESA instruments are participating in this mission (X-ray spectrometer coupled with a solar X-ray monitor, small FOV IR spectrometer, and energetic neutral mass spectrometer coupled with a solar ion flux monitor) will be highlighted.