

Geophysical Research Abstracts,
Vol. 10, EGU2008-A-03749, 2008
SRef-ID: 1607-7962/gra/EGU2008-A-03749
EGU General Assembly 2008
© Author(s) 2008

Testing Planet Formation Models with Gaia μ as Astrometry

A. Sozzetti(1,2), S. Casertano(3), M.G. Lattanzi(1), A. Spagna(1), S. Jancart(4), R. Morbidelli(1), R. Pannunzio(1), D. Pourbaix(4), D. Queloz(5)

(1)INAF-OATo (sozzetti@oato.inaf.it); (2)CfA; (3)STScI; (4)ULB; (5)Geneva

We first summarize the results of a large-scale double-blind tests campaign carried out for the realistic estimation of the Gaia potential in detecting and measuring planetary systems. Then, we put the identified capabilities in context by highlighting the unique contribution that the Gaia exoplanet discoveries will be able to bring to the science of extrasolar planets during the next decade.